Norfolk Sayings:

“My ole gal find fault wi’ everything. If I bort har a prayin’-mantis that’d be the wrong religion!”

Norfolk Proverb:

A trubble shared...is all rownd the village in harf n hour

Norfolk Poems:

Mary hed a little ow titchy lamb
With wool thass white as snow
Din’t matter where that mawther went
Thet lamb allus kep in tow
That follered har to skule one day
That teacher she wus riled
Git that duzzy cree`tur out`ohere
A`cors, them kids went wild
So teacher slung thet ow lamb out
But thet din`t go hoom, no fear
Thet snuck around outside the skule
Till the gal Mary did appear
Why the heck du thet lamb love Mary so
Them littul ow kids all cried
I reckon coz Mary love thet lamb
An` thet he hen`t got no Mum, beside
